Liberty Fairs: Billionaire Boys Club Spring/Summer 2014 Collection Preview

By Pete Williams

At Liberty Fairs, we had a chance to check out the forthcoming Spring/Summer 2014 collection from Billionaire Boys Club. Having featured ample camouflage patterns in the past, BBC decided to cut back for SS14, focusing instead on a modern-day pirate theme. Japanese designer Sk8thing created a number of graphics to tie into the seasonal story, with a new “crossed swords and helmet” logo serving as the lead image. Look for these pieces to release early in 2014.
