After hosting a handful of stylish apparel brands, the Concept 8366 1/2 space is now focusing on dressing dudes and ladies from the neck up. Trade show group Liberty Fairs' rotating pop-up store on West Third Street has been transformed into The Drugstore, a curated apothecary shop offering natural and organic grooming gear and giftables for men and women now until early January.

In addition to stocking stylish skincare and beauty brands like Earth Tu Face, Ernest Supplies, Mayron's Goods and Ilia; fragrances by Juniper Ridge and Capsul Parfums; haircare by Swedish line Sachajuan; RGB nail polish and much more, the shop will also be serving up cuts, trims and shaves thanks to Blind Barber, who'll also be holding court in the space. Plus, a limited selection of women's apparel by LA's Me+Arrow will also be available at the shop.

The dapper drugstore's inventory is just a taste of the men's grooming merch that'll make an appearance at Liberty Fairs' Vegas show next February.
