Got a chance to check out the Liberty Fairs Trade Show in NYC earlier this week, I must say it did not disappoint. There were great brands representing there new collections as well as stylish individuals conversing on there next collaborations. No long intro here just take a look below to see what I saw through the lens. Shout out to some of my favorite stops along the path, Bills Khakis for introducing there Tea Label line, great product coming for F15 great work guys. Lanona shoe co. is a brand to watch out for and support as well as Doughnut bag company out of Hong Kong. Water proof bags is all I need to say. Life OF kings. Enjoy the visuals. See Portraits below this.
