Menswear has evolved into a vast landscape littered with highly specific nooks and crannies to satisfy every stylistic viewpoint. And for each of these viewpoints, it seems, there is a trade show catering to it. We've attended most of these in the past, but, as of late, we've found Liberty Fashion & Lifestyle Fairs to best represent the clothing and the goods we dig the most. From throwback pieces crafted by Knickerbocker to the wood and wire lights from A-Lamp Design, we left this year's show with a laundry list of items we wanted to buy. Here's a look at some of our favorite items.
