Another installment has been added to the collection of editorials from Street Etiquette Studios. This time around, the duo joins forces with Liberty Fairs, where you can expect pieces from outerwear and sweatshirts to T-shirts, pants and shorts. In addition, accessories play a significant part to top off each look such as bags, hats and watches. Footwear also joins the bunch in a wide variety from your tradition lace up sneakers to Chelsea boots along with boots developed for durability sitting on top of a Vibram sole.
